

Annual Impact Report

Improving Quality Care for Serious Illness

While the year brought many unique challenges, the National Coalition HPC successfully advocated for equitable policies and improved health outcomes for serious illness care across the lifespan.

“Through combined efforts, the interdisciplinary partner organizations of the Coalition, are making a significant difference in the field of hospice and palliative care.

- GINGER MARSHALL, BOARD PRESIDENT

New Website

● www.nationalcoalitionhpc.org ● @Coalitionhpc

National Coalition for Hospice and Palliative Care

Projects

Details

Outcome

12.5M

Advancing research funding for palliative care

Advocated for $12.5 million in funding for the NIH National Institute of Aging

Supports implementation of a trans-institute, multi-disease strategy to expand research

- Monumental for the science of palliative care

45

Interdisciplinary cohort of attendees

Concurrent Care Convening, Baltimore, MD, in February 2024

One-day working session to consider areas of consensus for concurrent care

- Published open access Report and Summary available to the field
- Highlighted pediatrics along with patient voices

51

State level participants and advocates

Participated in PCHETA Lobby Day hosted by PQLC to support the S.2243 Senate Bill

Important to build support to strengthen the palliative care and hospice workforce

- 46 Senate offices visited by PQLC members in support of S.2243

Other Highlights

New Members

2

Advocacy & Speaking

9

Strategic Partnerships

6

Acknowledgements

The NCHPC acknowledges the contributions of the members who worked tirelessly on the accomplishments above. As a member, you have a unique opportunity to drive meaningful change and impact within the field. We look forward to your leadership and engagement in 2025.